Level 4 - the Advanced Level

Level 4 marks the start of the advanced level. Different from the elementary and intermediate levels, in the advanced level, students are expected to take an active role in the learning by preparing lessons more intensively before the lessons; to nurture appropriateness in the use of a language, and to develop how-to-learn skill for life-long learning.

During the first school term of the advanced level, the programme follows a proficiency-oriented, task-based approach focusing on communication ability in speaking and covering other major skills in listening, reading and writing, especially in areas that are closely related to speaking, such as communication in professional situations and advanced communication skills.

Admission Requirement

1. Current local and overseas undergraduates and postgraduates who wish to apply for July and August intensive programmes should forward application to the Office of Summer Programmes (OSP), where you can receive concession on student facilities and get transcript directly issued by CUHK. More information at: www.cuhk.edu.hk/osp.
2. For other status and programmes, application can be forwarded to the Chinese Language Center (CLC). The following admission requirement is applicable to CLC direct applicants.
 - Applicants should be, upon enrolment, 16 years old or above. Written consent from parents or guardians is required for applicants below 18. Accommodation is only provided to applicants whose age is 18 or above.
 - Those who apply for award-bearing programme should at least attained minimum Hong Kong secondary five or equivalent educational level upon admission.
 - It is desirable for applicants to possess functional ability in English to ease learning and living in Hong Kong. However, it is NOT an entry pre-requisite. The Center has other language support such as Japanese and Korean.
 - Non-Hong Kong resident or non-working visa holder is required by law to apply for student visa in all study programmes. The Center can sponsor student visa to those in need provided that applicants has enrolled into a full-time study (at least 12 sessions/ week) with the Center.
 - Non-beginners who are applying for non-beginner courses have to fulfill the placement requirement, which is usually conducted online at www.cuhk.edu.hk/clc/placement.htm.

Application procedures (CLC direct applicants only)

- Applications can be made any time in a year. For those who are not having HKID or valid working visa, application should be forwarded to the Center preferably two months prior to the beginning of the intended programme to provide sufficient time for student visa processing.
- Immigration requirement: students who come to study in HK MUST BE either a resident of Hong Kong, working visa and/ or student visa holder. Holder of tourist visa and/or visa exemption status is not allowed to study in any institution in Hong Kong. So, you must be clear about your visa status and apply for visa prior to your study. Otherwise, both you and the center will be liable for violating the immigration law. Under HKSAR immigration policy, holders of student visas should not take employment, paid or unpaid. Thus, students who intend to work must obtain a work visa with the sponsorship of their employer and then make arrangements for studying at the Center. Applicants without a legitimate immigration status for study purpose will not be allowed to attend a class even if they are already in the school and have paid the fee.
- Tourists who enter into Hong Kong with visa exemption status or tourist visa and want to apply for a CLC course MUST change status from tourist to student in person with the immigration office and this process normally takes one month. To avoid frustration and possible delay in visa processing, students are advised to forward application to CLC as early as possible.
- For those who are eligible for student visa sponsorship, there is no need for you to visit China embassy in your home country.

語言 Language

It is a tool for communication, a name card for your personality and a bridge leading to a new world.

Putonghua 普通話 (Standard Chinese)

The official language of the People's Republic of China

Also known as Standard Chinese or Mandarin, Putonghua is the official language of China, Taiwan and one of the four official languages of Singapore. Spoken by more than 1 billion native speakers, Putonghua is increasingly regarded as the language with equal importance to English. Along with China's economic rise, learning Putonghua seems to have become inevitable for many, and the education systems in various countries have made Putonghua as a foreign language programme compulsory for students.

Cantonese 廣東話

A language with a long history and the mother tongue of most Hong Kong people

Widely spoken in Hong Kong, Macau, Guangdong Province and overseas Chinese communities, Cantonese is one of the seven major dialects of China. Its origin dates from as early as the Qin Dynasty (221 to 206 BC). During the Song Dynasty (960 to 1279 AD), the occupation of northern China by foreign invaders caused an exodus of the Han Chinese to southern China, where the Cantonese dialect took shape. Hong Kong is the only place in the world where people use it officially to discuss serious issues. Its long heritage and vitality give it far-reaching influence on pop culture within the Asia-Pacific region.

Chinese Characters 中國漢字

Representation of China's civilization and culture

Chinese Characters are logograms used in the writing of Chinese and constitute the oldest continuously-used system of writing in the world. These artistic characters are indispensable to the civilization of China and have great impact on the language systems in the Asia-Pacific region like Japan and Korea. Studies carried out in China have shown that functional literacy requires knowledge of between 3000 to 4000 characters.

「CLC 是我的博士課程老師推薦給我的，他本身都是 CLC 的畢業生。他說：『你要努力讀書，但不用擔心，那裏的教職員是令人吃驚的』。那話是真的。我特別喜歡的是我現在與同學（韓國人，美國人及日本人）建立友誼，而我們的溝通語言是普通話。」

詩梅（荷蘭）

"CLC was recommended to me by my PhD supervisor who himself is a CLC graduate. He said, "you'll have to study hard but don't worry - the staff are amazing". True words! I especially like the fact that I now have friendships with fellow students (Korean, American and Japanese) and that our sole language of communication is Mandarin."

Jacqueline Elfick (Holland)

“私は、自身も卒業生である大学院の教授の紹介で CLC の存在を知りました。彼が言うには、“君はそこで一生懸命勉強しなければならないだろう、でも心配はいらないよ、スタッフが素晴らしいんだ！”それは事実でした。現在、韓国、アメリカ、日本から来たクラスメートとも仲良くなりました。我々がコミュニケーションする際の唯一の共通言語が普通話であることも、すごいことだと思います。”

Jacqueline Elfick (オランダ)

“CLC 는 이 곳의 졸업생이기도 한 내 박사과정의 담당교수가 추천한 곳이다. 그가 말하길, 분명 열심히 공부해야 하지만 걱정할 필요는 없다고 하였다. 탁월한 교사진이 있으니까. 그리고 그것은 사실이였다! 특히 좋았던 점은 많은 한국, 미국, 일본 등에서 온 친구들을 알게되었다는 것이다. 그리고 우리의 유일한 의사소통 수단은 표준중국어였다.”

Jacqueline Elfick (네덜란드)

香港

Hong Kong

Hong Kong (HK) is a region on China's south-east coast that came under British control in the 19th century. Over 150 years later in 1997 Britain finally handed HK back to China, classifying it as a "Special Administrative Region" (SAR).

HK has made its reputation as a financial centre and Asia's World City. In recent years its economy has become more integrated with that of the mainland.

One of the most striking characteristics of HK is the interweaving of contradictions and the interplay of the exotic and technically advanced. Due to these dazzling contrasts, HK offers visitors something unique – the chance to experience a vibrant Chinese city without sacrificing the comforts of home.

English is widely spoken in this most cosmopolitan of cities. Along with invigorating opportunities for personal growth, Hong Kong offers unmatched insights into fast track global business, rapid urban and social development, and an energetic civil society.

Medical care in Hong Kong is world class and public hospitals are inexpensive.

Law and order in Hong Kong is the envy of many other cities in the world; the crime rate is low and public security is not only very good but also unobtrusive.

There is on top of it all, a rich cultural life in Hong Kong. Often described as The City of Light, Hong Kong is the meeting place of East and West where the indigenous culture of Southern China comes into contact with the best the West has to offer in the world of the arts and entertainment.
